life coaching*

Improve your life and reach your dreams ...

Read about two of our customers and how life coaching has helped them:

Daniel is a successful businessman, but he finds it difficult to make friends so at weekends he stays at home and spends a lot of time alone on his computer. On weekdays, he often stays in the office late. He's also overweight and says he's never done much exercise. He'd like to become healthier and go out and meet people, maybe find a girlfriend, but he doesn't know where to start.

Rebecca loves dancing and she teaches a dance class once a week. She works for an electronics company, but she doesn't like her job. She thinks it's boring and works long hours, but she needs the money because her rent is very high. She'd like to teach dance all the time, but she doesn't know how to start.

*coaching = training, teaching

6 B Read the life-coaching advice and underline the correct alternatives.

Daniel ¹should/'ll look for activities he can do with other people. He ²should/shouldn't join a club or group, for example a walking club or a cooking group because then he ³ll/might meet people who enjoy the same things. When he's with other people he ⁴should/shouldn't ask them lots of questions and he ⁵should/shouldn't show interest in their answers. People love talking about themselves and they ⁶ll/won't think he's a great guy! Who knows? He ⁷ll/might find a girlfriend one day!

Rebecca ⁸shouldn't/might not wait any more. She's in the wrong job. She ⁹should/'ll contact the Association of Dance Teachers – she can find them on the internet and they ¹⁰might/'ll give her advice about starting a new business. At the moment she ¹¹won't/shouldn't leave her job. The best thing is to work part-time, but her company ¹²might/might not agree. She ¹³should/shouldn't start teaching more classes – lots of people want to learn to dance and I'm sure she ¹⁴won't/might not find it difficult to reach her dream.
